

OUR FRAGILE PLANET

Food Sustainability

Sonia Faruqi left a successful Wall Street career path to investigate animal farms around the world, a journey profiled in her critically acclaimed book Project Animal Farm. In this event, she will talk about how small changes in our day-to-day lives can yield major positive results for people, animals, and the planet.

Meet Sonia at this book talk and Q&A session.

Wednesday April 18, 2018
7-8 pm

Free program.

Supported by:

TD Friends of the Environment
Foundation

For more information,
please contact the Beaches Branch.

torontopubliclibrary.ca